Here you will find a sense of belonging as part of a vibrant, inclusive community of deep learning and spiritual reflection.

“My ministry of pastoral counseling and teaching has been expanded and deepened through the opportunities for theological reflection, community engagement, and academic discipline which the Doctor of Ministry program at Lancaster Seminary affords.”

Rev. Dr. Marianne Sickles Grabowski, ‘15
Bright Side Baptist Church

“We educate and nurture leaders to join in God’s redemptive and liberating work so that all creation may flourish.”

We educate and nurture leaders to join in God’s redemptive and liberating work so that all creation may flourish.

My education at Lancaster Seminary provided me with an opportunity to explore new ways of practicing theology, challenged me to reflect on traditional academic disciplines in a changing culture, and strengthened my practice of pastoral ministry.”

Rev. Dr. Constance O’Mealy Mentzer, ’14
St. Paul Lutheran Church

Wondering how to afford a graduate degree?

Our competitively priced tuition features a 15-installment billing plan that takes the guesswork out of budgeting.

Our scholarships and financial aid programs help you to bridge the financial gap.

VISIT CAMPUS.
COME MEET US.
YOUR FUTURE AWAITS.

Apply now.
lancasterseminary.edu
admissions@lancasterseminary.edu

555 West James Street, Lancaster, PA 17603

Lancaster Theological Seminary

Deepen Your Practice of Ministry

lancasterseminary.edu
DEEPEN YOUR MINISTRY

Our fully accredited Doctor of Ministry degree for religious professionals is designed to help you grow spiritually, preach persuasively, and inquire deeply through systematic study and research, and rich dialogue with renowned faculty and engaged colleagues from many faith traditions.

“I loved the education! I appreciated the wisdom of professors and the freedom to choose an area of focus so that I could tailor the education to my own needs.”
—Rev. Dr. Joanne Marchetto, ’15

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Master of Divinity degree or its equivalent

At least three years in the practice of ministry following the degree, or a consistent professional ministry during the five years immediately prior to application

Ongoing practice of ministry

“There is a life-giving vibrancy on campus, a wonderfully dynamic atmosphere where diversity abounds with opportunities to move toward life more abundant.”
—Rev. Dr. Martin Kuchma, ’11

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Application Deadline is July 1.

DMIN BY THE NUMBERS

4 years to complete the degree, on average

33 total credits required for completion

18 credits of seminars including Hearing the Faithful, and Exploring Christian Practice

12 credits of electives in heritage and ministry arts courses

3 credits for major project consultation

1:1 individual attention from our faculty of world-class scholars and noted authors dedicated to your academic success

Candidates research and present a doctoral thesis/major project. This major project integrates theological reflection and academic research with the pressing issues of the church and the world, often drawing from a variety of disciplines for resources and inspiration.

Examples of recent doctoral major projects:

- Church and Familial Expectations in Disability Ministry
- Holy Fun: A Pathway to Church Consolidation
- Concepts of Mission in an Urban Community
- Organizational Dynamics and Creativity in Mainline Congregations
- We Are Family: An Exploration of Biblical Family Models
- A Contemporary Corrections Ethic in the Tradition of Social Contract Theory
- Desired Characteristics of Ministerial Leadership in the United Church of Christ

DEEP THEOLOGICAL EXPLORATION INTO REAL WORLD ISSUES

Candidates research and present a doctoral thesis/major project. This major project integrates theological reflection and academic research with the pressing issues of the church and the world, often drawing from a variety of disciplines for resources and inspiration.

Examples of recent doctoral major projects:

- Church and Familial Expectations in Disability Ministry
- Holy Fun: A Pathway to Church Consolidation
- Concepts of Mission in an Urban Community
- Organizational Dynamics and Creativity in Mainline Congregations
- We Are Family: An Exploration of Biblical Family Models
- A Contemporary Corrections Ethic in the Tradition of Social Contract Theory
- Desired Characteristics of Ministerial Leadership in the United Church of Christ

innovative involved inclusive

lancasterseminary.edu
admissions@lancasterseminary.edu
(800) 393-0654 ext.2