

About Lancaster Theological Seminary

Founded in 1825, Lancaster Theological Seminary is an inclusive, ecumenical community of faith and learning. It is one of six seminaries associated with the United Church of Christ, a progressive denomination committed to a just world for all. Our mission is to educate and nurture leaders to join in God's redemptive and liberating work so that all creation may flourish. Lancaster Seminary is known for academic excellence, celebration of differences across Christian faith traditions, and creative engagement on issues important to our world. At any one time, Lancaster Seminary's student body may represent 20 or more different denominations as well as individuals without denominational affiliation. We offer four graduate degree programs and two certificate programs.
