

THE ALLAN S. MECK & ROBERT V. MOSS AWARDS
FOR FAITHFULNESS IN MINISTRY

The Alumni Council of Lancaster Theological Seminary awards these special honors annually to graduates of any denomination.

The Meck Award honors the memory of Allan S. Meck, Class of 1911, president of the Seminary from 1947-57. It is presented for distinguished service in the practice of pastoral ministry.

The Moss Award is named for Robert V. Moss, Jr., Class of 1945, president of the Seminary from 1957-69. It is presented for distinguished service in the practice of specialized ministry (e.g., chaplain, administrator, educator, judicatory staff, etc.).

Selection

The Alumni Council's Faithfulness in Ministry Committee will select the recipients of these awards from nominations that are received by Jan. 31, 2022.

General Criteria

The Faithfulness in Ministry Committee looks at specific criteria for indications of excellence in ministry, including:

- Fostering the vitality of the ministry;
- Exhibiting excellent pastoral presence;
- Demonstrating creativity in ministry;
- Enlisting and nurturing the gifts of others;
- Relating the Gospel to the commonly-shared experiences in the ministry.

Nominations must contain:

- (1) the name and address of the nominee;
- (2) the particular setting of ministry of the nominee;
- (3) at least a sentence or two indicating how the nominee meets the five criteria listed above;
- (4) an indication of how long the nominator has known the nominee and in what capacity;
- (5) the name, address and contact information of the person submitting the nomination.

If your nominee was not selected previously, please submit a new nomination since those from prior years are not kept.

Deadline: Jan. 31, 2022. Nominations should be sent by Jan. 31, 2022 to:
The Rev. Charlie Gross, cwgross@gmail.com, or sent by US Postal Service to:
