We, the student and supervisor named above, have agreed to enter into a teaching and learning covenant at the field site noted above. We understand that the student must begin the learning experience with the site no later than the first week of September. We also understand that the student must submit a completed, approved, and signed Learning Covenant to the Office of Field Education no later than the posted due date (typically in mid-September). For students working in a congregation, this includes the formation of a Lay Committee. We have read the FE Guidelines of Lancaster Theological Seminary and are aware of our responsibilities.

N.B. This document is not a private document. Faculty members have access to all Field Education documents. For students who are in discernment, these documents will be shared with your judicatory representative. Field Education documents may also be reviewed by a judicatory in an application students submit to be considered a candidate for ministry.
